6th ANNUAL MADRID CONFERENCE ON AUSTRIAN ECONOMICS

Madrid, October 27th and 28th, 2022 Submission deadline: July 31st, 2022

The Faculty of Political Economy in cooperation with the Master Programme in Economics of the Austrian School of Universidad Rey Juan Carlos in Madrid and Lübeck University of Applied Sciences will hold their sixth annual conference on Austrian Economics. The aim of the conference is to bring together scholars doing research in this intellectual tradition.

The scientific committee invites the submission of theoretical or empirical papers related to Austrian Economics on subject areas such as value and utility, market behavior, money and banking, financial economics, business cycles or economic history. Although the submission of full papers is preferred, extended abstracts will also be considered.

The keynote lecture will be held by Professor Jesús Huerta de Soto

The Scientific Committee expresses its sincere gratitude to Mr. Brecht Arnaert for funding the MacroTrends Prize for the Development of Austrian Economics and to Degussa Metales Preciosos for the closing evening reception.

Venue and Timetable

The conference will begin on Thursday, October 27th at 1 pm and conclude around 5 pm on Friday, October 28th, 2022.
If the Covid situation permits, the conference will be held on the premises of Universidad Rey Juan Carlos in Madrid (else virtually).
